About Nifa Overseas

Welcome to Nifa Overseas, where tradition meets artistry in the heart of Roorkee, Uttarakhand, India. Since our inception in 2007, we have been dedicated to the craft of creating exquisite handmade bells, each piece resonating with the heritage and soul of its makers. At Nifa Overseas, we pride ourselves on our deep-rooted history and commitment to quality, offering a unique range of bells designed for hanging and decor purposes.

Nestled in the vibrant landscape of Uttarakhand, our workshop is a place where the timeless art of bell-making is preserved and cherished. Our artisans, with their skilled hands and passionate hearts, bring to life the rich legacy of bell craftsmanship passed down through generations. Every bell from Bells Village carries within it a story, a melody, and a touch of the serene beauty that surrounds our village.

Our collection ranges from classic designs inspired by the past to contemporary creations that suit modern tastes. Whether you seek the soothing chime of a hanging bell or the elegant allure of a decorative piece, Nifa Overseas offers an array of options to add a symphony of sounds and beauty to your space.

As we continue our journey, we remain steadfast in our commitment to sustainability, utilizing eco-friendly materials and practices that honour our environment. We invite you to explore the enchanting world of nifa overseas, where every bell is not just an object, but a keeper of stories, waiting to be a part of your home and heart ❤️
